Welcome to Worcestershire

Worcestershire is home to far more than just our iconic sauce and our hope is this travel trade guide will take you on an exciting journey to discover the breadth of what Worcestershire has to offer. Located in the heart of England, at the centre of the motorway and rail network – Worcestershire offers rolling hills, glorious green space, award-winning family attractions, miles of waterways and over a thousand years of history to explore.

Home to the Malvern Hills, the West Midlands Safari Park, Museum of Royal Worcester, Worcester Cathedral and the renowned Severn Valley Railway. Famous for our sauce, industrial past and the location of the first and last English Civil War.

Steeped in so much history, surrounded by beautiful rolling countryside with a unique independent dining scene sourcing the best of local produce. A place where your clients are welcomed with open arms. From Elgar to Blossom trails to the celebration of asparagus. Worcestershire has a unique offering for groups and travellers of all ages.

Helping you plan your group visit to Worcestershire

We can help with images, itineraries, maps, coach parking, FAM visits and advice.

Browse the content below to help find the information you need to start planning your visit to Worcestershire. If you have any questions, image requests, or need some advice along the way, please do get in touch with the team at visitworcestershire@worcestershire.gov.uk

Connections

Worcestershire is situated in the 'Heart of England'. Perfectly located on the M5 motorway network which connects the South to the Midlands and bordering the Cotswolds and Stratford upon Avon. We are conveniently located near several high-footfall tourist areas. Offering an array of attractions and well-priced accommodation, Worcestershire can be the perfect destination for groups when exploring the region.

Connected by air: Birmingham Airport - Located at the centre of the country's road and rail networks means that it is one of the most accessible airports, particularly by rail, thanks to its on-site rail station with trains every few minutes taking you directly into Birmingham city centre within 10 minutes and onward trains to Worcestershire leaving every 30 minutes. Road travel is around 50 minutes to central Worcestershire.

Connected by rail: Worcestershire is well connected by rail, with Worcestershire Parkway just 2 hours from London and 30 minutes from Birmingham. With key routes accessed via Great Western Railway, West Midlands Trains and Cross Country. Key mainline railway stations are: Worcester Foregate and Shrub Hill, Worcestershire Parkway, Malvern, Droitwich Spa, Pershore, Evesham, Redditch, Bromsgrove, Kidderminster, Alvechurch, Barnt Green, Blakedown, Hagley, Hartlebury, Honeybourne and Wythall. The Severn Valley Railway is a heritage railway in Shropshire and Worcestershire accessible via Kidderminster. The Gloucestershire Warwickshire Railway is a heritage railway offering a round trip of 28 miles which can be boarded in Broadway.

Connected by road: Worcestershire has fantastic connections to the rest of the UK via the M5 with Junction 6 providing access to the south of the county and Junction 7 supporting towns in the north as well as close proximity to the M42/south.

Coach Parking: Worcestershire has several coach parking facilities and often has bespoke parking for large events such as the Worcester Victorian Fayre. For more information please visit: visitworcestershire.org/trade/group-travel

Top 5 Reasons to Visit Worcestershire:

1. Our stunning countryside and English villages

Worcestershire is a county of outstanding beauty, best explored through its natural landscapes. A stroll across the Malvern Hills is a must for any visitor to this part of the world – the hills offer the highest vantage point in the county and on a clear day, offer stunning views over Worcestershire and Herefordshire to the mountains of Wales. The Clent Hills near Bromsgrove are also not to be missed, the views from Clent are equally as awe-inspiring. Or why not explore the UK's largest ancient woodland in the Wyre Forest. Our riverside towns offer great destinations for visitors with Stourport, Evesham, Bewdley and Upton offering picturesque shopping opportunities. Worcester City is a bustling haven for independent shopping and dining and Broadway is the quintessential chocolate box village.

2. Our waterways

Worcestershire's rivers and canals allow for fantastic exploration – enjoy boating, walking and cycling along Worcestershire waterways including the River Severn, Britain's longest river which meanders through several beautiful riverside towns.

3. Home to History

From the Tudors to the Civil War and into the industrial revolution – Worcestershire has a wealth of fascinating history. Home of the signing of the first magna carter and the only City to still celebrate Oak Apple Day – our royal connections give Worcester the title 'the Faithful City'.

4. Award-winning attractions

Home to the award-winning West Midlands Safari Park, including the Museum of Royal Worcester, and the iconic Severn Valley Railway. Worcestershire has a range of museums and attractions that celebrate our industrial heritage, unique history and amazing food. From vineyards to needle-making to historic houses with hidden priest holes. We have something for all interests.

5. Our produce and food

You have probably heard about Worcestershire Sauce? But did you know we are also home to pears, apples, plums and strawberries fit for a King and world-famous asparagus? Also award-winning wines, gins, ciders, beers and natural bottled spring water from the Malvern Hills. Worcestershire is full of great produce and our local chefs know how to turn it into mouth-watering meals. Enjoy a taste of Worcestershire on your trip.

The Big 3

Experience a piece of Worcester's history with a group visit to its three museums all based in the city centre. From tales of the English Civil War to the resting place of the infamous King John, the faithful city of Worcester is the perfect day trip destination.

If you have any questions then please contact visitworcestershire@worcestershire.gov.uk and a member of the team will be able to assist with your group visit to Worcestershire.

The Battle of Evesham Festival - 760th Anniversary Special

Witness Europe's largest thirteenth-century battle re-enactment, where over 750 performers and 20 horses recreate the two major battles of the Baron's War on the first weekend in August each year. The Battle of Evesham (4th Aug 1265) is where the founder of representative parliament, Simon de Montfort, was defeated and slaughtered along with an estimated 5,000 men in a bout of noble bloodletting not seen since 1066.

Wander around two large living history camps and learn about medieval life, medicines and crafts, speak to the re-enactors and meet the Nobel war-horses. Listen to the minstrels and join in the dancing. Then have a go at archery, axe throwing and medieval catapult. Then be tempted by the 30+ food and drink stalls and browse the 100+ medieval and artisan craft traders' goods.

Highlights:

- ◆ Grand Parade through Evesham followed by a commemorative service at de Montfort's memorial - 10:30am Saturday from St Lawrences Church.
- ◆ Battles of Lewes and Evesham re-enacted by 400+ soldiers and Knights in hand-to-hand combat - from Sunday 11 am. Battle of Evesham on Saturday 4pm.
- ◆ Cavalry Demonstrations, fully armed mounted Knights show their skills with their wonderful war-horses.
- ◆ 150 traders and beer tent.
- ◆ Situated along a mile of award-winning Avon river meadows in the heart of historic Evesham.

Capacity: We can accommodate large groups, families, schools and individuals.

Experience length: 3 hrs minimum to 3 days.

Availability:

- ◆ Friday Noon to 8pm
- ◆ Saturday 10am to 8pm
- ◆ Sunday 10am to 5pm

Avoncroft Museum

Avoncroft, the oldest open-air museum in England, celebrates 700 years of history through the stories of thirty five historic buildings across the museum's nineteen acre site. The buildings, both domestic and industrial, range from a medieval town house complete with period herb gardens, through to a working regency windmill a Victorian tollhouse and a 1950s prefab. The museum also holds the National Collection of Telephone kiosks.

Throughout the year the buildings are brought to life by costumed interpreters, digital displays and major reenactment events such as the 'International Living History Festival' and 'On the Home Front.' The popular tearoom serves a selection of hot and cold food and drinks with the museum shop selling a range of gifts and souvenirs including flour milled on site.

Highlights:

- ◆ Tudor townhouse, Regency windmill, Victorian tollhouse
- ◆ The National Collection of Telephone Kiosks
- ◆ Easy access from M5 and M42 motorways
